In re: David Ernest Marshall	CASE NO. 24-70036
Debtor(s)	CHAPTER 7

ORDER TO CHAPTER 7 PRO SE DEBTOR

An order for relief having been entered herein pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Chapter 7 upon a petition filed by you in the United States Bankruptcy Court.

It is ORDERED that,

You are responsible for all of your property until a trustee is appointed and qualifies as such. You shall not waste or dispose of any of your property, you shall safely care for and protect the same, and, if in business, you shall preserve all records including but not limited to journals, general ledgers, and checkbooks.

You have received or will receive soon a notice of meeting of creditors. You shall personally appear on the date and time set forth in the notice and submit to examination as to the conduct of your affairs, your property and all other matters which may affect the settlement of your estate. If necessary, you may be ordered to appear subsequent to the meeting of creditors for further examination.

You shall bring with you to the meeting of creditors and present to the trustee your homestead deed, if any, and any and all deeds to real property, any and all insurance policies, and copies of your tax returns, both federal and state, for the current tax year.

You shall cooperate with and assist all officers of the court, such as the United States Trustee, or any trustee appointed by him or elected by creditors, or any official court appraiser, should one be appointed in your case. If an official appraiser is appointed, you should be prepared to make the property available for appraisal.

You shall obey all orders of the court and your responsibility for doing so does not cease even if a discharge is granted. The discharge does not conclude the bankruptcy proceeding. A discharge may be revoked, for cause.

You shall immediately advise the court and the United States Trustee in writing of any change of your address.

You should be advised that it is the responsibility of the debtor to review and correct returned notices which need a corrected address.
